SPECIAL DAYS

Displayed below are special days that are commonly observed in various branches of the ecumenical church. With the exception of All Saints' Day and the civil days New Year's Day and Thanksgiving, they are ordinarily not included in Reformed observance. However, there is value in including them in daily prayer. Their inclusion will recognize the work of God in these biblical events, and express our solidarity with Christians in other traditions. Psalms are those appointed for the day of the week in which a special day falls.
